*“Talking about our problems is our greatest addiction. Break the habit. Talk about your joys:
 Rita Schiano, Writer*

**Please stand if able.*

As the music begins, be silent, be thoughtful, and be reverent, for this is the House of the Lord. Before the service, speak to the Lord. During the service, let the Lord speak to you. After the service, speak to one another.

Thank you!

Leah and I continue to unpack and find places for all our “stuff” in our new home in Oil City. Among our most precious items is the beautiful clock with which we were presented at our farewell celebration on the June 13th. It already graces our living room with beauty and our home with music from its position near our front door.

We are so very grateful to God for the 10 years of love we experienced during our sojourn in Reynoldsville. All of you hold special places in our hearts and will long remain in our memories. Thank you again for the many kindnesses throughout the years: the prayers, the conversations, and the friendships. May the Lord bless you and keep you always in his love, mercy, and grace through Jesus Christ our Lord.

By His Grace,
 Tom and Leah Carr

The flowers in the Chancel area are given to the honor and glory of God.
